MOTION FOR CORRECTION OF RESPONDENTS ERRORS

Comes Now, Petitioner in the above styled cause, moves this Court pursuant to Rule 5, Fed.R.Civ.P. for respondents to correct their error concerning service of process, and shows good cause in the following, to-wit:

1. In respondents' "Response to Petitioner's Motion for Order compelling requested Documents," it was stated, on November 29, 2007, "Respondent submitted responses to Petitioner request." Petitioner has not received any such response.
2. Respondents further stated; "That Respondents served Petitioner with a copy of the requested documents on the same day as filing. Petitioner has not received any such documents.
3. Petitioner's submitted to this Court and respondents an affidavit to the fact; he never received any such response or documents.
4. Petitioner has spoken with certain officials here at the Elmore Correctional Center, concerning the "Legal Mail", which he never received. Petitioner was not allowed to speak with the ~~any~~<sup>1</sup> official. However, each/every inmate must sign a log before receiving their "Legal Mail", at this institution.

5. This Court has the power to request a true and correct copy of the institutional "Legal Mail" log for inspection. If the Court deem appropriate to inspect the log, petitioner has no objections.

6. Petitioner believes, respondents are attempting to hide or obscure the existence of particular documents. In order to keep this Court from understanding the truth of this matter.

7. Petitioner states, ~~and~~ he received a copy of the respondents response to his request for document, the Motion for Order Compelling Requested Documents, would've never been filed.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Premises Considered. Petitioner preys this Court grant said motion, and order respondents to comply with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Done this the 17 day of December 2007.
